

PAUL COHEN'S Marijuana Hub

A Division of Cohen Grassroots Research, Inc. www.cohengrassroots.com

Newsletter: April 29 2016, Issue #250-- www.cohenresearch.com

Cohen Grassroots Research, Inc. is the Nation's Number #1 Micro Cap and Cannabis Research Firm
IR Research Reports (1,000+) - Distribution to 100s of thousands of investors

HOW TO MAKE MONEY IN THE MARIJUANA STOCK MARKET THE NFL, TUNSIL, POT

Laremy Tunsil, offensive tackle, was the projected number 1 draft choice in the 2016 draft.

A picture floated around the NFL showing someone smoking and inhaling a bong hit.

That someone was reported to be Laremy Tunsil

Nobody really knows if it was or was not. The photo killed his draft status.

What did happen is that Tunsil dropped from number 1 to number 13 to the Dolphins.

That was like Aaron Rodgers of the Packers dropping from number 1 to 22 to Green Bay.

Maybe the NFL knows more about pot than the entire marijuana/cannabis industry.

They have more experience with marijuana and athletes than perhaps any major sport worldwide.

That experience is that once someone is a pot head, they are pretty much doomed to the addiction. They get worse, not better.

Problems with pot and other drugs plague these athletes.

It is hard to rationalize that recreational pot is good for families, kids, teenagers.

This industry's hype rationalizes that marijuana is great for everyone. The NFL thinks differently.