More Growlife PHOT Comments

- Growlife (PHOT) will report the upcoming quarter of August 20, 2014
- We follow 81 marijuana companies, and will increase our list size
- PHOT appears to us to be the best value of all 81 companies for these reasons:
- Growlife was the poster child for the entire marijuana industry before the SEC stopped trading in the stock.
- Everyone in this industry knows the story to a certain extent.
- This notoriety is invaluable Investor Relations.
- Conversations with new President, Marco Hegyi indicate that Marco has turned this company around, cut costs, increased margins, reduced employees.
- PHOT is now a much leaner and meaner machine than it ever was during past management
- We will discuss more about PHOT at this time because we feel share prices are the steal of the industry at this point in time.
