HOW TO MAKE MONEY IN THE MARIJUANA STOCK MARKET

MORE ON SESSIONS CONFIRMATION HEARINGS

It looked to me in Sessions' confirmation hearings that cannabis was more of an afterthought.

The cannabis industry put as much pressure on Sessions as they could.

The pressure was really a non event.

It is clear to me that both Jeff Sessions will enforce Federal law as related to cannabis.

Sessions made it clear that he will enforce federal law in any issue, regardless of his personal views.

However, Sessions is clearly anti marijuana in all of its forms.

It is also clear to me that he will be confirmed.

The cannabis industry will have to deal with an anti marijuana AG who will enforce federal law. Period and end.

It continues to amaze me that the cannabis stock market is so strong. This is the worst case industry scenario.

I don't think investors really understand that this is an illegal drug industry that is opposed to by the Federal government

Estimating $20+ billions of dollars of revenues in five years appears to me to be far fetched.

The practical every day business of trying to run a public illegal drug company under the thumb of the Federal Government is unique in the history of all USA industry stock groups.

The best card the cannabis industry has is that the Feds don't have enough man power to enforce regulation.
