HOW TO MAKE MONEY IN THE MARIJUANA STOCK MARKET WILL SESSIONS GO?

We have written a number of times about AG Jeff Sessions.

It is clear to many that Sessions may be on his way out.

The politics are not complicated.

With a loyal AG, the President has more power to influence the Russia investigation.

It remains to see if he can shut it down.

That issue is indeed complicated.

The path for firing the Special Counsel is through an AG that the President can control.

If the President can control the Russia investigation, control the FBI by having it report to him directly, and Pardon himself and those involved in the Russian matters, this Country will have lost much of its democracy and basic freedoms.

In the book Devil's Bargain, the author wrote that the President gave up on Chris Christie.

Add Jeff Sessions to Christie, and the marijuana industry will have benefited.

Both Sessions and Christie have been the two most anti-cannabis advocates in this Administration.

The cannabis stock market has not responded to both of these people being possibly disenfranchised.

I would think that the news could not be better for the cannabis industry if both are out or quasi out.

The best stock I know of in the marijuana industry is Amfil Technologies, AMFE. We will continue to follow this exciting company.
