HOW TO MAKE MONEY IN THE MARIJUANA STOCK MARKET

RESCHEDULING MARIJUANA

The United States Drug Enforcement Administration announced that it is considering a possible reschedule of marijuana to Schedule 2.

There is no singular event more important to the cannabis industry than a reschedule from 1 to 2. Such a rescheduling would make the industry credible. It is not viable as it is now constructed.

A reschedule would help in all areas especially taxes and banking.

The Huffington Post reported that the DEA will make its decision in the middle of 2016. The DEA sent a letter to U.S. Sen. Elizabeth Warren and seven of her concerned associates.

Of interest Sen. Warren has been mentioned as a possible Vice President for Hillary Clinton. We might assume that Warren is pro cannabis; I do not know.

Will this happen?

The odds are against it. The DEA nixed rescheduling in 2001 and 2006.

If the DEA says pot will remain on the dangerous narcotic list, and parrot Schedule 1, this issue at this time will subside.

I suspect that there is not any practical or political reason to reschedule at this time. We do not know what is going on behind the scenes. I can see a positive California vote for recreational triggering a reschedule, but not for now.

Still, a reschedule is a positive game changer. The entire cannabis stock market would explode on this news.
